

Hampstead Classical Society
Winter Term 2025 Programme

Dear all,

Please see below the upcoming events at the Hampstead Classical Society for the 2025 Winter Term.

All the events will take place in person at 17 Dornfell Street, NW61QN, from 7.30pm to 8.30pm on Mondays. Some of these events are open to all, some are for members only.

To join the latter events, we kindly request you to become a member for a small fee of £10 py; if interested, please contact:

membershiphampsteadclassical@gmail.com.

We look forward to hearing from you,

HCS Committee

Alba, Davide, Lucrezia, Niccolò

Winter 2025

Book Club

13th January, Monday 7.30pm

Tasters' Session (members only event)

20th January, Monday 7.30pm

Our President, Dr Alba Miriello will introduce us to some of the key authors and questions of Ancient Philosophy. Come along to discuss some of the foundational texts of our culture!

Book Club

3rd February, Monday, 7.30pm

Tasters' Session (members only event)

10th February, Monday 7.30pm: Mr Niccolò Campus will lead a workshop on Latin metre, come and join us to learn how to read ancient Roman poetry. Drinks and nibble provided!

Book Club

3rd March, Monday, 7.30pm

Tasters' Session (members only event)

24th March, Monday 7.30pm: Dr Lucrezia Sperindio will introduce us to ancient lyric poetry and we will discuss texts a range of ancient poems, from early Greek lyric to Roman lyric. Drinks and nibble provided!

Book Club

7th April, Monday, 7.30pm

Easter Talk (members only event)

28th April, Monday 7.30pm: join us for a final evening with talks by Early Career Scholars on different topics of Classical Antiquity. Drinks and nibble provided!

Also, please note that there are still available places for our Members Summer Trip to Calabria in July 2025, ask to our president presidenthampsteadclassical@gmail.com for more information!